Give Them The Word

It may be that a simple word offered in love, guided by the wisdom of God, and borne aloft on the wings of the Spirit will have eternal consequences in someone's life.

Should we not then fill ourselves with God's Word and pass it on to others with the prayer that God will use it for His intended purposes? My Word . . . shall not return to Me void. —Isaiah 55:11

Mission...South America

Tune in now for the latest report from Bill Taylor. Where I am staying is very HOT – I haven't stopped sweating since I got here. Tuesday we went to Cuenca, Ecuador where Jefferson's parents live....very cold there...thank God...lol! It is just lovely but treacherous....one curve after another in the mountains...sharp ones....no straight roads anywhere....three hours plus one way.....it was very taxing as these people here pass in no passing zones....they don't slow down for curves....even Jefferson's Dad drives this way...wow!! Going to Cuenca we got pulled over in the truck we were in because we were four in front with no seat belts....so the driver got a ticket....while he was at the back of the truck with the policeman I happened to take a picture of them from the mirror...the policeman saw me and came walking back up to the truck and told me NOT to take any more pictures...I thought I was going to jail and would have to call and tell you that I would have an extended stay here...but thank God that didn't happen. The clouds were covering the roads to the point where we could hardly see. I filmed some of the roads, the cars, the people on the roads, etc so you could see how it is –unbelievable! You just about have head-ons all the time because it zig zags everywhere...road signs mean nothing...I am serious. There are tons of banana trees with huge bunches of bananas on them and coco trees, chocolate and sugar cane. Tell everyone at church that I really am missing them!! I leave here Friday to go to Pasto Columbia where Stiven lives. (At the time of this printing..saw from FB post he made it to Columbia and there was suppose to be a music concert in which Bill would be a part of, but no word from him yet so until next week – stay tuned right here and keep him in your prayers.)

Getting It Right OnThe Inside

I love the story of Jonah! It's full of drama and important life lessons. After stubbornly refusing to do God's will, Jonah finally preached a revival service in Nineveh that would have made him one of the most successful missionaries of his time. When the people repented and turned from their wicked ways—and when God relented and turned from His anger against them—you would have expected Jonah to rejoice. Instead, he was angry that God was merciful. Why? Although he was finally obeying God by doing the right thing in the right place, he was deeply flawed on the inside.

Like Jonah, if we are not careful, we can be spiritually “looking good” on the outside, but far from God in our hearts. He is most interested in what we are like on the inside. His Word is “sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing even to the division of soul and spirit” (Heb. 4:12). With it, He performs divine surgery to remove the greed, dishonesty, hatred, pride, and selfishness that live in the deep shadows of our hearts.

So the next time the Holy Spirit convicts you and asks you about your bad attitude (Jonah 4:4 Then the LORD said, “Is it right for you to be angry?” )—listen carefully. Surrender and let Him change you from the inside out.

I confess, heavenly Father, that I know what it's like to be more concerned about my outward obedience than my inner rebellion. I want to look good to others. Forgive me. Change me and make me pure within.

If God controls you on the inside, you'll be genuine on the outside.
