I Cannot Pray - Author Unknown

I cannot say "OUR" if my religion has no room for others and their needs.

I cannot say "FATHER" if I do not demonstrate this relationship in my daily life.

I cannot say "WHO ART IN HEAVEN" if all my interests and pursuits are in earthly things.

I cannot say "HALLOWED BE THY NAME" if I, who am called by his name, am not holy.

I cannot say "THY KINGDOM COME" if I am unwilling to give up my own sovereignty and accept the righteous reign of God.

I cannot say "THY WILL BE DONE" if I am unwilling or resentful of having it in my life.

I cannot say "ON EARTH AS IT IS IN HEAVEN" unless I am truly ready to give myself to his service here and now.

I cannot say "GIVE US THIS DAY OUR DAILY BREAD" without expending honest effort for it or by ignoring the genuine needs of my fellow men.

I cannot say "FORGIVE US OUR TRESPASSES AS WE FORGIVE THOSE WHO TRESPASS AGAINST US" if I continue to harbor a grudge or unforgiveness against anyone.

I cannot say "LEAD US NOT INTO TEMPTATION" if I deliberately choose to remain in a situation where I am likely to be tempted.

I cannot say "DELIVER US FROM EVIL" if I am not prepared to fight in the spiritual realm with the weapon of prayer.

I cannot say "THINE IS THE KINGDOM" if I do not give the King the disciplined obedience of a loyal subject.

I cannot say "THINE IS THE POWER" if I fear what my neighbors and friends may say or do.

I cannot say "THINE IS THE GLORY" if I am seeking my own glory first.

I cannot say "FOREVER" if I am too anxious about each day's affairs.

I cannot say "AMEN" unless I honestly say, "Cost what it may, this is my prayer."

Master Craftsman

When my wife and I were engaged, her dad gave us a special wedding present. As a watchmaker and jeweler, he made our wedding rings. To make my wedding band, Jim used gold scraps left over from resizing other rings—scraps that were seemingly without much value. But in the hands of this craftsman, those pieces became a thing of beauty that I cherish to this day. It is amazing what a master craftsman can do with what others might view as useless.

That is also how God works in our lives. He is the greatest Master Craftsman of all, taking the wasted pieces and broken shards of our lives and restoring them to worth and meaning. The prophet Jeremiah described this when he compared God's work to that of a potter working clay: "The vessel that he made of clay was marred in the hand of the potter; so he made it again into another vessel, as it seemed good to the potter to make" (Jer. 18:4).

No matter what messes we have made of our lives, God can remold us into vessels that are good in His eyes. As we confess any sin and submit ourselves in obedience to His Word, we allow the Master to do His redemptive work in our lives (2 Tim. 2:21). That is the only way for the pieces of our brokenness to be made whole and good once again.

Have Thine own way, Lord! Have Thine own way!
Thou art the Potter, I am the clay;
Mold me and make me after Thy will,
While I am waiting, yielded and still. —Pollard

Broken things can become blessed things if you let God do the mending.
