

I AM YOUR PASTOR

When you rise to your highest and best, I am your Pastor.
 When you yield to temptation and fall to your lowest, I am your Pastor.
 When you live in the Spirit and manifest the attitude of a Christian,
 I am your Pastor.
 When for a time you sink to the level of the flesh, I am your Pastor.
 When you walk in the pathway of duty and do God's will, I am your Pastor.
 When you enter the path of disobedience, I am your Pastor.
 When joys come to you that swell the notes of praise in your heart,
 I am your Pastor.
 And when sorrow comes as a dark shroud over your life, I am your Pastor.
 When you have done your best and deserve the approbation of others,
 I am your Pastor.
 When you have done your best and your good is spoken of as evil,
 I am your Pastor.
 When you have all you need and more of the necessities of life,
 I am your Pastor.
 When you feel the pinch of poverty and your power to earn decreases,
 I am your Pastor.
 When you remain sweet and gracious as a mature Christian ought,
 I am your Pastor.
 When you act childish over some real or imagined wrong, I am your Pastor.
 When everything goes right and you have not a care in the world,
 I am your Pastor.
 When nothing seems right and burdens multiply, I am your Pastor.
 When you please me by the stand you take and the wonderful spirit you manifest, I am your Pastor.
 When you disappoint me and cause me sleepless nights, I am your Pastor.
 When you are living life to the fullest, I am your Pastor.
 When your health fails and the end of mortal life seems near,
 I am your Pastor.
 When I reveal that I am human and have my own weaknesses and infirmities, and you are charitable and understanding,
 I count it a privilege to be your Pastor.

Spaces still available- provide the trunk and someone will decorate it- -See Bro. Boone. Donate candy in the boxes that are set up by the foyer and pass out the Post cards advertising the event. ### Thanksgiving Baskets

There is a list in the foyer to sign up for things to bring for the Thanksgiving Baskets that we give each year to families less fortunate. These can be left in the kitchen area. Also donations of can goods or non perishable items for the pantry would be helpful as there are more needs during this time of the year. If you would like to make a suggestion or know someone that needs help see Sis. Jeane or Sis. Britan.

Prayer Request and Praise Reports

To be able to spend more time praying for special needs and prayer requests, please fill out a prayer request card found on the desk in the foyer or ask an usher for one. There is also a place for a praise report. We are scrolling announcements and requests/praise reports on the screen during prayer and before service.

A Walk In The Woods

Do not let sin reign in your mortal body, that you should obey it in its lusts. —
Romans 6:12

A friend of mine wrote to me about certain “reservations” in his life—areas of secret sin that he reserved for himself and into which he frequently withdrew.

These “reserves” are like the large tracts of wilderness in my home state of Idaho. It may sound exciting to wander around these untamed regions by oneself, but it's dangerous.

So too, each journey into sin takes its toll. We sacrifice our closeness with God, forfeiting His blessing (Psalm 24:1-5), and we lose our influence on others that comes from purity of mind and body (1 Timothy 4:12).

The wild areas in us may never be fully tamed, but we can set up perimeters that keep us from wandering into them. One perimeter is to remember that we are dead to sin's power (Romans 6:1-14). We do not have to give in to it.

The second perimeter is to resist temptation when it first attracts us. Initial temptation may not be strong, but if we entertain it, it will in time gain power and overwhelm us.

The third perimeter is accountability. Find a person who will commit to ask you each week, “Have you ‘taken a hike in the wild’? Have you gone where you should not go?”

Impurity is ruinous, but if we long for holiness and ask God for help, He will give us victory. Press on!

O Lord, help us to recognize
When we begin to compromise;
And give us strength to follow through
With what we know is right and true. —Sper
